Ornicar [from the French mnemonic for conjunctions “mais où est donc or ni car?”] is the journal founded in 1975 by Jacques-Alain Miller. The early issues contain transcriptions of Lacan’s Seminars: R.S.I.; Le Sinthome; L’insu que sait de l’une bévue; and, Dissolution!

	Seminar Name	Summarizer	COST
SEM IV (not the actual text)	The Object Relation, a conceptual summary, over 200 pages, week by week in English of sessions from Nov 21 1956 to Apr 10 1957 (17 sessions) Lacking the last 5 sessions (May 8-Jul 3, 1957)	Alan Large, member of an Australian reading group of Sem IV	30.00

Incidentally, I have been distributing Lacanian texts and seminars in French and in English translation for over twenty-five years on an individual basis to various scholars, academics, and clinicians. By 1984, I had managed to obtain every seminar of Jacques Lacan in French, including multiple versions of the same seminar.

I have taken it upon myself to make these texts and seminars available, certainly not to annoy the legal owners of these writings, nor for profit, but for creating and sustaining an interest in Lacanian scholarship in an otherwise monolithic cultural environment.
